Soluble Pacific Guano.

Also 80 to 90 lbs. earthy bone Phosphate of lime, 30 lbs. of which are soluble phosphate.

It combines all the advantages of the best brands of Super Phosphate, with those of Peruvian Guano.

By reason of its greater concentration, we recommend 20 per ct. less by weight to be used per acre, than of any fertilizer costing the same per ton; and no more per acre than of those selling at 20 per ct. more per ton.—Hence its economy.

This guano weighs 65 lbs. per bushel, hence in applying it farmers must be governed by weight and not by bulk, for it is much lighter than the Super Phosphates. Every cargo duly inspected.

"Flour of Bone."

WE will give a money guarantee of the purity of this article. It is pure unsteamed, unburnt bone, reduced to the fineness of flour, which adds 100 per ct. to its value. It is as quick and active as acid dissolved bone, hence its value is vastly greater, because it contains neither acid nor water, which necessarily add weight, and reduce the quantity of valuable elements. We recommend 250 lbs. to be used in place of 300 lbs. Super Phosphate or dissolved bone.

ADDRESS

PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES.

Having met in Convention, at the city of Philadelphia, in the State of Pennsylvania, this 16th day of August, 1866, as the representatives of the people in all sections, and all the States and Territories of the Union, to consult upon the condition and the wants of our common country, we address to you this declaration of our principles, and of the political purposes we seek to promote.

THE LATE WAR.

Since the meeting of the last National Convention, in the year 1860, events have occurred which have changed the character of our internal politics and given the United States a new place among the nations of the earth. Our Government has passed through the vicissitudes and perils of civil war—a war which, though mainly sectional in its character, has nevertheless decided political differences that from the very beginning of the Government had threatened the unity of our national existence, and has left its impress deep and ineffaceable upon all the interests, the sentiments, and the destiny of the Republic.

While it has inflicted upon the whole country severe losses in life and property, and has imposed burdens which must weigh on its resources for generations to come, it has developed a degree of national courage in the presence of national dangers—a capacity for military organization and achievement, and a devotion on the part of the people to the form of government which they have ordained, and to the principles of liberty which that Government was designed to promote, which must confirm the confidence of the nation in the perpetuity of its republican institutions, and command the respect of the civilized world.

Like all great contests which rouse the passions and test the endurance of nations, this war has given new scope to the ambition of political parties, and fresh impulse to plans of innovation and reform. Amidst the clash of conflicting sentiments inseparable from such an era, while the public heart is keenly alive to all the passions that can sway the public judgment and affect the public action; while the wounds of war are still fresh and bleeding on either side, and fears for the future take unjust proportions from memories and resentments of the past, it is a difficult but an imperative duty which on your behalf we, who are here assembled, have undertaken to perform.

ASSEMBLAGE IN AMITY.

For the first time after six long years of alienation and of conflict, we have come together from every State and every section of our land, as citizens of a common country, under that flag, the symbol again of a common glory, to consult together how best to cement and perpetuate that Union which is again the object of our common love, and thus secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity.

In the first place we invoke you to remember, always and everywhere, that the war is ended and the nation is again at peace. The shock of contending arms no longer assails the shuddering heart of the Republic. The insurrection against the supreme authority of the nation has been suppressed, and that authority has been again acknowledged, by word and act, in every State and by every citizen within its jurisdiction. We are no longer required or permitted to regard or treat each other as enemies. Not only have the acts of war been discontinued, and the weapons of war laid aside, but the state of war no longer exists, and the sentiments, the passions, the relations of war have no longer lawful or rightful place anywhere throughout our broad domain. We are again people of the United States, fellow citizens of one country, bound by the duties and obligations of a common patriotism, and having neither rights nor interests apart from a common destiny.

DUTIES OF PEACE.

The duties that devolve upon us now are again the duties of peace, and no longer the duties of war. We have assembled here to take counsel concerning the interests of peace; to decide how we may most wisely and effectually heal the wounds the war has made, and perfect and perpetuate the benefits it has secured, and the blessings which, under a wise and benign Providence, have sprung up in its fiery track. This is the work, not of passion, but of calm and sober judgment, not of resentment for past offences prolonged beyond the limits which justice and reason prescribe, but of a liberal statesmanship which tolerates what it cannot prevent, and builds its plans and its hopes for the future rather upon a community of interest and ambition than upon distrust and the weapons of force.

POLITICAL RESULTS OF THE WAR.

In the next place, we call upon you to recognize, in their full significance, and to accept with all their legitimate consequences, the political results of the war just closed. In two most important particulars the victory achieved by the National Government has been final and decisive. First, it has been established beyond all further controversy, and by the highest of all human sanctions, the absolute supremacy of the National Government, as defined and limited by the Constitution of the United States, and the permanent integrity and indissolubility of the Federal Union as a necessary consequence; and, second, it has put an end finally and forever to the existence of slavery upon the soil or within the jurisdiction of the United States. Both these points became directly involved in the contest, and controversy upon both was ended absolutely and finally by the result.

FRUITS OF VICTORY.

In the third place, we deem it of the utmost importance that the real character of the war and the victory by which it was closed should be accurately understood. The war was carried on by the Government of the United States in maintenance of its own authority and in defence of its own existence, both of which were menaced by the insurrection which it sought to suppress. The suppression of that insurrection accomplished that result. The Government of the United States maintained by force of arms the supreme authority over all the territory, and over all the States and people within its jurisdiction which the Constitution confers upon it; but it acquired thereby no new power, no enlarged jurisdiction, no rights either of territorial possession or of civil authority which it did not possess before the rebellion broke out. All the rightful power it can ever possess is that which is conferred upon it, either in express terms or by fair and necessary implication, by the Constitution of the United States. It was that power and that authority which the rebellion sought to overthrow, and the victory of the Federal arms was simply the defeat of that attempt.

The Government of the United States acted throughout the war on the defensive. It sought only to hold possession of what was already its own. Neither the war, nor the victory by which it was closed, changed in any way the Constitution of the United States. The war was carried on by virtue of its provisions, and under the limitations which they prescribe, and the result of the war did not either enlarge, abridge, or in any way change or affect the powers it confers upon the Federal Government, or release that Government from the restrictions which it has imposed.

The Constitution of the United States is to-day precisely as it was before the war, the "supreme law of the land, anything in the constitution or laws of any State to the contrary notwithstanding;" and to-day, also, precisely as before the war, all the powers not conferred by the Constitution upon the General Government, nor prohibited by it to the States, are "reserved to the several States, or to the people thereof."

This position is vindicated not only by the essential nature of our Government, and the language and spirit of the Constitution, but by all the acts and language of our Government, in all its departments and at all times, from the outbreak of the rebellion to its final overthrow.

SOLE OBJECT OF THE WAR.

In every message and proclamation of the Executive it was explicitly declared that the sole object and purpose of the war was to maintain the authority of the Constitution and to preserve the integrity of the Union; and Congress more than once reiterated this solemn declaration, and added the assurance that, whenever this object should be attained the war should cease, and all the States should retain their equal rights and dignity unimpaired. It is only since the war was closed that other rights have been asserted on behalf of one department of the General Government.

ASSERTIONS OF CONGRESS.

It has been proclaimed by Congress that, in addition to the powers conferred upon it by the Constitution, the Federal Government may now claim over the States, the territory and the people involved in the insurrection, the right of war, the rights of conquest and of confiscation, the right to abrogate all existing governments, institutions and laws, and to subject the territory conquered and its inhabitants to such laws, regulations and deprivations as the legislative departments of the Government may see fit to impose. Under this broad and sweeping claim, that clause of the Constitution which provides that "no State shall without its consent be deprived of its equal suffrage in the Senate of the United States," has been annulled, and ten States have been refused, and are still refused, representation altogether in both branches of the Federal Congress. And the Congress in which only a part of the States and of the people of the Union are represented has asserted the right thus to exclude the rest from representation, and from all share in making their own laws or choosing their own rulers until they should comply with such conditions and perform such acts as this Congress, thus composed, may itself prescribe.

That right has not only been asserted, but it has been exercised, and is practically enforced at the present time. Nor does it find any support in the theory that the States thus excluded are in rebellion against the Government, and are therefore precluded from sharing its authority. They are not thus in rebellion. They are one and all in an attitude of loyalty towards the Government, and of sworn allegiance to the Constitution of the United States. In no one of them is there the slightest indication of resistance to this authority, or the slightest protest against its just and binding obligation. This condition of renewed loyalty has been officially recognized by solemn proclamation of the Executive department. The laws of the United States have been extended by Congress all over these States and the people thereof. Federal courts have been reopened, and Federal taxes imposed and levied, and in every respect, except that they are denied representation in Congress and the Electoral College, the States once in rebellion are recognized as holding the same position, as owing the same obligations and subject to the same duties as the other States of our common Union.

UNRESTRICTED REPRESENTATION NECESSARY.

It seems to us, in the exercise of the calmest and most candid judgment we can bring to the subject, that such a claim, so enforced, involves as fatal an overthrow of the authority of the Constitution, and as complete a destruction of the Government and Union, as that which was sought to be effected by the States and people in armed insurrection against them both. It cannot escape observation that the power thus asserted to exclude certain States from representation is made to rest wholly in the will and discretion of the Congress that asserts it. It is not made to depend upon any specified conditions or circumstances, nor to be subject to any rules or regulations whatever. The right asserted and exercised is absolute, without qualification or restriction, not confined to States in rebellion, nor to States that have rebelled; it is the right of any Congress in formal possession of legislative authority to exclude any State or States, and any portion of the people thereof, at any time, from representation in Congress and in the Electoral College, at its own discretion and until they shall perform such acts and comply with such conditions as they may dictate.

Obviously, the reasons for such exclusion being wholly within the discretion of Congress, may change as the Congress itself shall change. One Congress may exclude a State from all share in the Government for one reason; and, that reason removed, the next Congress may exclude it for another. One State may be excluded on one ground to-day, and another may be excluded on the opposite ground to-morrow. Northern ascendancy may exclude Southern States from one Congress—the ascendancy of Western or of Southern interests, or of both combined, may exclude the Northern or the Eastern States from the next. Improbable as such usurpations may seem, the establishment of the principle now asserted and acted upon by Congress, will render them by no means impossible. The character, indeed the very existence of Congress and the Union is made dependent solely and entirely upon the party and sectional exigencies or forbearance of the hour.

We need not stop to show that such action not only finds no warrant in the Constitution, but is at war with every principle of our Government, and with the very existence of free institutions. It is, indeed, the identical practice which has rendered fruitless all attempts hitherto to establish and maintain free governments in Mexico and the States of South America. Party necessities assert themselves as superior to the fundamental law, which is set aside in reckless obedience to their behests. Stability, whether in the exercise of power, in the administration of government, or in the enjoyment of rights, becomes impossible; and the conflicts of party, which, under constitutional governments, are the conditions and means of political progress, are merged in the conflicts of arms to which they directly and inevitably tend.

It was against this peril so conspicuous and so fatal to all free governments that our Constitution was intended especially to provide. Not only the stability but the very existence of the Government is made by its provisions to depend upon the right and the fact of representation.

RIGHT OF REPRESENTATION.

The Congress, upon which is conferred all the legislative power of the National Government, consists of two branches, the Senate and House of Representatives, whose joint concurrence or assent is essencial to the validity of any law. Of these the House of Representatives, says the Constitution, (article 1, section 2) "shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several States." Not only is the right of representation thus recognized as possessed by all the States and by every State without restriction, qualification or condition of any kind, but the duty of choosing representatives is imposed upon the people of each and every State alike, without distinction, or the authority to make distinctions among them, for any reason, or upon any grounds whatever. And in the Senate, so careful is the Constitution to secure to every State this right of representation, it is expressly provided that "no State, shall, without its consent, be deprived of its equal suffrage" in that body, even by an amendment of the Constitution itself.

When, therefore, any State is excluded from such representation, not only is a right of the State denied, but the constitutional integrity of the Senate is impaired, and the validity of the Government itself is brought in question. But Congress at the present moment thus excludes from representation, in both branches of Congress, ten States of the Union, denying them all share in the enactment of laws by which they are to be governed, and all participation in the election of the rulers by which those laws are to be enforced. In other words, a Congress in which only twenty-six States are represented, asserts the right to govern, absolutely and in its own discretion, all the thirty-six States which compose the Union—to make their laws and choose their rulers, and to exclude the other ten from all share in their own Government until is sees fit to admit them thereto. What is there to distinguish the power thus asserted and exercised from the most absolute and intolerable tyranny?

PRIVILEGE OF CITIZENSHIP RESTORED.

Nor do these extravagant and unjust claims on the part of Congress to powers and authority never conferred upon the Government by the Constitution, find any warrant in the arguments or excuses urged on their behalf. It is alleged:

First, That these States, by the act of rebellion and by voluntarily withdrawing their members from Congress, forfeited their right of representation, and that they can only receive it again at the hands of the supreme legislative authority of the Government, on its own terms and its own discretion. If representation in Congress and participation in the Government were simply privileges conferred and held by favor, this statement might have the merit of plausibility. But representation is, under the Constitution, not only expressly recognized as a right, but it is imposed as a duty; and it is essential in both aspects to the existence of the Government and to the maintenance of its authority. In free governments fundamental and essential rights cannot be forfeited, except against individuals, by due process of law; nor can constitutional duties and obligations be laid aside. The enjoyment of rights may be for a time suspended by the failure to claim them, and duties may be evaded by the refusal to perform them. The withdrawal of their members from Congress by the States which resisted the General Government, was one of the means and agencies by which they sought to impair the authority and defeat the action of the Government, and that act was annulled and rendered void when the insurrection itself was suppressed.

Neither the right of representation nor the duty to be represented was in the least impaired by the fact of insurrection; but it may have been, that by reason of the insurrection the conditions on which the enjoyment of that right and the performance of that duty for the time depended could not be fulfilled. This was, in fact, the case. An insurgent power, in the exercise of usurped and unlawful authority in the territory under its control, had prohibited that allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States which is made by that fundamental law the essential condition of representation in its government. No man within the insurgent States was allowed to take the oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and, as a necessary consequence, no man could lawfully represent these States in the councils of the Union. But this was only an obstacle to the enjoyment of the right and to the discharge of a duty; it did not annul the one nor abrogate the other; and it ceased to exist when the usurpation by which it was created had been overthrown, and the States had again resumed their allegiance to the Constitution and laws of the United States.

THE REBELLION AN INSURRECTION.

Second. But it is asserted, in support of the authority claimed by the Congress now in possession of power, that it flows directly from the laws of war; that it is among the rights which victorious war always confers upon the conquerors, and which the conqueror may exercise or waive in his own discretion. To this we reply that the laws in question relate solely, so far as the rights they confer are concerned, to wars waged between alien and independent nations, and can have no place or force, in this regard, in a war waged by a government to suppress an insurrection of its own people, upon its own soil, against its authority. If we had carried on successful war against any foreign nation, we might thereby have acquired possession and jurisdiction of their soil, with the right to enforce our laws upon their people and to impose upon them such laws and such obligations as we might choose. But we had before the war complete jurisdiction over the soil of the Southern States, limited only by our own Constitution. Our laws were the only national laws in force upon it. The Government of the United States was the only government through which those States and their people had relations with foreign nations, and its flag was the only flag by which they were recognized or known anywhere on the face of the earth.

In all these respects, and in all other respects involving national interests and rights, our possession was perfect and complete. It did not need to be acquired, but only to be maintained; and victorious war against the rebellion could do nothing more than maintain it. It could only vindicate and re-establish the disputed supremacy of the Constitution.—It could neither enlarge nor diminish the authority which that Constitution confers upon the Government by which it was achieved. Such an enlargement or abridgement of constitutional power can be effected only by amendment of the Constitution itself, and such amendment can be made only in the modes which the Constitution itself prescribes. The claim that the suppression of an insurrection against the Government gives additional authority and power to that Government; especially that it enlarges the jurisdiction of Congress and gives that body the right to exclude States from representation in the national councils, without which the nation itself can have no authority and no existence, seems to us at variance alike with the principles of the Constitution and with the public safety.

WAY TO AMEND THE CONSTITUTION.

Third. But it is alleged that in certain particulars the Constitution of the United States fails to secure that absolute justice and impartial equality which the principles of our Government require; that it was in these respects the result of compromises and concessions, to which however necessary when the Constitution was formed, we are no longer compelled to submit and that now, having the power through successful war and just warrant for its exercise in the hostile conduct of the insurgent section, the actual government of the United States may impose its own conditions, and make the Constitution conform in all its provisions to its own ideas of equality and the rights of man. Congress at its last session proposed amendments to the Constitution, enlarging in some very important particulars the authority of the General Government over that of the several States, and reducing, by indirect disfranchisement, the representative power of the States in which slavery formerly existed; and it is claimed that these amendments may be made valid as parts of the original Constitution without the concurrence of the States to be most seriously affected by them, or may be imposed upon those States by three-fourths of the remaining States, as conditions of their readmission to representation in Congress and in the Electoral College.

FULL CONCURRENCE OF THE STATES REQUISITE.

It is the unquestionable right of the people of the United States to make such changes in the Constitution as they, upon due deliberation, may deem expedient. But we insist that they shall be made in the mode which the constitution itself points out, in conformity with the letter and spirit of that instruiment, and with the principles of self-government and of equal rights which lie at the basis of our republican institutions. We deny the right of Congress to make these changes in the fundamental law, without the concurrence of three-fourths of all the States, including especially those the most seriously affected by them; or to impose them upon States or people, as conditions of representation, or of admission to any of their rights, duties or obligations, which belong under the Constitution to all the States alike. And with still greater emphasis do we deny the right of any portion of the States excluding the rest of the States from any share in their councils, to propose or sanction changes in the Constitution which are to affect permanently their political relations and control or coerce the legitimate action of the several members of the common Union.

Such an exercise of power is simply a usurpation, just as unwarrantable when exercised by Northern States as it would be if exercised by Southern, and not to be fortified or palliated by anything in the past history either of those by whom it is attempted or of those upon whose rights and liberties it is to take effect. It finds no warrant in the Constitution. It is at war with the fundamental principles of our form of government. If tolerated in one instance, it becomes the precedent for future invasions of liberty and constitutional right, dependent solely upon the will of the party in possession of power, and thus leads, by direct and necessary sequence, to the most fatal and intolerable of all tyrannies—the tyranny of shifting, and irresponsible political factions. It is against this, the most formidable of all the dangers which menace the stability of free government, that the Constitution of the United States was intended most carefully to provide. We demand a strict and steadfast adherence to its provisions. In this, and in this alone, can we find a basis of permanent Union and peace.

LOYALTY OF THE SOUTH UNQUESTIONED.

Fourth. But it is alleged, in justification of the usurpation which we condemn, that the condition of the Southern States and people is not such as render safe their readmission to a share in the Government of the country; that they are still disloyal in sentiment and purpose, and that neither the honor, the credit, nor the interests of the nation would be safe if they were readmitted to a share in its councils. We might reply to this:—

1. That we have no right, for such reasons, to deny to any portion of the States or people rights expressly conferred upon them by the Constitution of the United States.

2. That so long as their acts are those of loyalty—so long as they conform in all their public conduct to the requirements of the Constitution and laws—we have no right to exact from them conformity in their sentiments and opinions to our own.

3. That we have no right to distrust the purpose or the ability of the people of the Union to protect and defend, under all contingenc sacrifice and in public spirit, after a war [illegible] in its progress and so adverse in its issue, have accepted defeat and its consequences with as much of good faith as has marked the conduct of the people lately in insurrection against the United States. Beyond all question this has been largely due to the wise generosity with which their enforced surrender was accepted by the President of the United States and the generals in immediate command of our armies, and to the liberal measures which were afterwards taken to restore order, tranquility and law to the States where all had for the time been overthrown. No steps could have been better calculated to command the respect, win the confidence, revive the patriotism, and secure the permanent and affectionate allegiance of the people of the South to the Constitution and laws of the Union than those which have been so firmly taken and so steadfastly pursued by the President of the United States.

EFFECTS OF EXCLUSIVE LEGISLATION.

And if that confidence and loyalty have been since impaired; if the people of the South are to-day less cordial in their allegiance than they were immediately upon the close of the war, we believe it is due to the changed tone of the legislative department of the General Government toward them; to the action by which Congress has endeavored to supplant and defeat the President's wise and beneficent policy of re-toration; to their exclusion from all participation in our common Government; to the withdrawal from them of rights conferred and guaranteed by the Constitution, and to the evident purpose of Congress, in the exercise of a usurped and unlawful authority, to reduce them from the rank of free and equal members of a republic of States, with rights and dignities unimpaired, to the condition of conquered provinces and a conquered people, in all things subordinate and subject to the will of their conquerors; free only to obey laws in making which they were not allowed to share.

REPRISAL AGAINST OPPRESSION JUSTIFIED.

No people, however, yet existed whose loyalty and faith such treatment long continued would not alienate and impair. And the ten millions of Americans who live in the South would be unworthy citizens of a free country, degenerate sons of an heroic ancestry, unfit ever to become the guardians of the rights and liberties bequeathed to us by the fathers and founders of this Republic, if they could accept, with uncomplaining submissiveness, the humiliations thus sought to be imposed upon them. Resentment of injustice is always and everywhere essential to freedom; and the spirit which prompts the States and people lately in insurrection, but insurgent now no longer, to protest against the imposition of unjust and degrading conditions, makes them all the more worthy to share in the government of a free commonwealth, and gives still firmer assurance of the future power and freedom of the Republic.

REBELLION HAS BEEN EXPIATED.

For whatever responsibility the Southern people may have incurred in resisting the authority of the National Government and in taking up arms for its overthrow, they may be held to answer, as individuals, before the judical tribunals of the land, and for that conduct as societies and organized communities, they have already paid the most fearful penalties that can fall on offending States in the losses, the sufferings and humiliations of an unsuccessful war. But whatever may be the guilt or the punishment of the conscious authors of the insurrection, candor and common justice demand the concession that the great mass of those who became involved in its responsibility acted upon what they believed to be their duty, in defense of what they had been taught to believe their rights, or under a compulsion, physical and moral, which they were powerless to resist. Nor can it be amiss to remember that, terrible as have been the bereavements and the losses of this war, they have fallen exclusively upon neither party—that they have fallen, indeed, with far greater weight upon those with whom the war began, that in the death of relatives and friends, the dispersion of families, the disruption of social systems and social ties, the overthrow of governments, of law and of order, the destruction of property and of forms and modes and means of industry, the loss of political, commercial and moral influence, in every shape and form which great calamities can assume, the States and people which engaged in the war against the Government of the United States, have suffered tenfold more than those who have remained in allegiance to the Constitution and the laws.

These considerations may not, as they certainly do not, justify the action of the people of the insurgent States; but no just or generous mind will refuse to them very considerable weight in determining the line of conduct which the Government should pursue towards them,

ACCEPTANCE OF ITS PENALTIES,

They accept, if not with alacrity, certainly without sullen resentment, the defeat and overthrow they have sustained. They acknowledge and acquiesce in the results, to themselves and the country, which that defeat involves. They no longer claim for any State the right to secede from the Union; they no longer assert for any State an allegiance paramount to that which is due to the General Government. They have accepted the destruction of slavery, abolished it by their State Constitutions, and concurred with the States and people of the whole Union in prohibiting its existence forever upon the soil or within the jurisdiction of the United States. They indicate and evince their purpose just so fast as may be possible and safe to adapt their domestic laws to the changed condition of their society, and to secure by the law and its tribunals equal and impartial justice to all classes of their inhabitants.

They admit the invalidity of all acts of resistance to the National authority, and all debts incurred in attempting its overthrow. They avow their willingness to share the burdens and discharge all the duties and obligations which rest upon them, in common with other States and other sections of the Union; and they renew, through their representatives in this Convention, by all their public conduct, in every way and by the most solemn acts by which States and societies can pledge their faith, their engagements to bear true faith and allegiance, through all time to come, to the Constitution of the United States, and to all laws that may be made in pursuance thereof.

APPEAL TO THE NATION.

Fellow countrymen: We call upon you, in full reliance upon your intelligence and your patriotism, to accept with generous and ungrudging confidence this full surrender on the part of those lately in arms against your authority, and to share with them the honor and renown that await those who bring back peace and concord to jarring States. The war just closed, with all its sorrows and disasters, has opened a new career of glory to the nation. It has saved. It has swept away the hostilities of sentiment and of interest which were a standing menace to its peace. It has destroyed the institution of slavery, always a cause of sectional agitation and strife, and has opened for our country the way to unity of interest, of principle and of action through all time to come. It has developed in both sections a military capacity—an aptitude for achievements of war, both by sea and land, hitherto unknown even to ourselves, and destined to exercise hereafter, under united councils, an important influence upon the character and destiny of the continent and the world. And while it has thus revealed, disciplined and compacted our power, it has proved to us beyond controversy or doubt, by the course pursued toward both contending sections by foreign powers, that we must be guardians of our own independence, and that the principles of republican freedom we represent can find among the nations of the earth no friends or defenders but ourselves.

We call upon you, therefore, by every consideration of your own dignity and safety, and in the name of liberty throughout the world, to complete the work of restoration and peace which the President of the United States has so well begun, and which the policy adopted and the principle asserted by the present Congress alone obstruct.

CONGRESS TO BE REMODELED.

The time is close at hand when members of a new Congress are to be elected. If that Congress shall perpetuate this policy, and, by excluding loyal States and people from representation in its halls, shall continue the usurpation by which the legislative powers of the Government are now exercised, common prudence compels us to anticipate augmented discontent, a sullen withdrawal from the duties and obligations of the Federal Government, internal dissension and a general collision of sentiments and pretensions which may renew, in a still more fearful shape, the civil war from which we have just emerged.

We call upon you to interpose your power to prevent the recurrence of so transcendent a calamity. We call upon you in every Congressional district of every State to secure the election of members, who, whatever other difference may characterize their political action, will unite in recognizing the RIGHT OF EVERY STATE OF THE UNION TO REPRESENTATION IN CONGRESS, AND WHO WILL ADMIT TO SEATS IN EITHER BRANCH EVERY LOYAL REPRESENTATIVE FROM EVERY STATE in allegiance to the Government, who may be found by each House, in the exercise of the power conferred upon it by the Constitution, to have been duly elected, returned and qualified for a seat therein.

THE SOVEREIGNTY OF THE STATES.

When this shall have been done the Government will have been restored to its integrity, the Constitution of the United States will have been re-established in its full supremacy, and the American Union will have again become what it was designed to be by those who formed it, a sovereign nation, composed of separate States, each like itself, moving in a distinct and independent sphere, exercising powers defined and reserved by a common Constitution, and resting upon the assent, the confidence and co-operation of all the States and all the people subject to its authority. Thus reorganized and restored to their constitutional relations, the States and the General Government can enter in a fraternal spirit, with a common purpose and a common interest, upon whatever reforms the security of personal rights, the enlargement of popular liberty and the perfection of our republican institutions may demand.

UNANIMOUS ADOPTION.

At the conclusion of the reading the cheers resounded again and again, and enthusiastic demonstrations of approval were made by the delegates springing to their feet and waving their hats. The question of approval was put to a viva voce vote, and the address was adopted without a dissenting voice.

NICHOLAS HELTZEL, ESQ.

The Ohio Patriot notices the nomination of Nicholas Heltzel, Esq., by the Democracy of this county, for the Legislature, in the following deservedly complimentary manner:

"An Ex-Editor of the Ohio Patriot in Luck.—N. Heltzel, Esq., one of the editors of the Ohio Patriot from 1835 to 1839, a period of over 4 years, we are rejoiced to see, has been nominated by the Democracy of Adams county, Pennsylvania, as their candidate for the Legislature, and with a fine prospect of success. Mr. Heltzel is a Democrat of the old Jefferson and Jackson style—and worked in the Globe office under Blair & Rives, and helped to print old Hickory's Messages from the original manuscript, and "by the eternal" they were always right. Adams county was the tramping ground of Thad. Stevens, during the days of the Buckshot war, and the Tape-worm Rail Road, and we should be truly rejoiced to see her wheel into the Democratic line under the command of such a true and whole-souled Democrat as Mr. Heltzel."

Our Ohio cotemporary does not seem to be properly posted in regard to the political position of this county. Adams wheeled into the Democratic line a dozen years ago, and will not now "go back" on a man as honest and capable as Nicholas Heltzel. The skies are bright down in these parts.

GEARY COMES OUT AT LAST!

He Declares Openly for Negro Suffrage!

Let Every Voter Know It!

John W. Geary made a speech at "Lochiel Iron Works," near Harrisburg, week before last, in which he took open ground in favor of NEGRO SUFFRAGE! He declared that he was "ready to meet the issue of Negro Suffrage, and he was not prepared to deny THE RIGHT OF VOTING TO COLORED MEN!"—Hitherto some people have thought that Geary was not in favor of Negro Suffrage. Now he has settled all doubts on that subject. Let every body know that Geary says he is not prepared to deny the Negro the right to vote.

CURTIN ON NEGRO SUFFRAGE.

At York, the other day, Gov. Curtin, standing by Gen. Geary's side, and speaking for him, said: "If the South desires the Negroes to vote, come on with your wool! There can be no possible objection to it!" All, therefore, that is needed to make Negro Suffrage right in Pennsylvania, is that the South agree to it.

"Coming Out from the Foul Party!"—The Huntingdon Globe, heretofore a strong Republican paper, has taken down the name of Geary, The editor of the Columbia Spy has retired from his post because he cannot support Geary,

SOLDIERS' NATIONAL CONVENTION.

A National Soldiers' Convention, in support of President Johnson, will be held in Cleveland, Ohio, on the 17th of September. The call is signed by Gen. Custer, the two McCooks, and others equally distinguished for their gallant services, whilst among the speakers designated are Gen. John A. Dix, of New York; Major General Thomas Ewing, of Kansas; Major General Thomas L. Crittenden, of Kentucky; Colonel Lewis D. Campbell, of Ohio; Major General James B. Steadman, of Ohio; Major General Charles G. Halpin, of New York, (poet at Gettysburg, July 4th, 1865;) Major General George Sykes, of Pennsylvania; Brigadier John S. Swift, of Massachusetts; Colonel Albert W. Bradbury, of Maine; Major General Solomon Meredith, of Indiana, (commanding the 19th Indiana regiment in the battle of Gettysburg;) and a number of others. Chaplain, Rev. Henry Ward Beecher. This will be the soldier demonstration of the country, and will show where the vast majority of the fighting men stand. Geary may denounce all participating in its deliberations as "shysters, skulkers and hospital bummers," but they can afford to stand that from him.

GEN. GRANT ALL RIGHT.

The Committee appointed by the National Union Convention to present a copy of the Address and Resolutions of the Convent on to President Johnson, performed that duty at the White House, Saturday week. Senator Reverdy Johnson made the presentation speech. The President made a most excellent and patriotic reply, which we will lay before our readers next week. During the ceremony, GEN. U. S. GRANT stood by the President's side, and at the close of the proceedings the two retired together. The President made some patriotic allusions to the services of General Grant, which were loudly cheered by the audience. Here is another opportunity for Geary. Is Grant a "Shyster and a Coward, a Skulker and a Hospital Bummer," too?

☞ The Radicals had a meeting in the Court-house on Tuesday evening, the object being to prevent further falling off from the party here. McClure, McPherson and McConaughy were announced as the speakers. When the evening came, McClure was not on hand—and we venture to say that he was not expected when his name was placed upon the bill. The meeting would have been a miserable failure had not curiosity induced a number of Democrats to go there. As it was, McPherson soon talked—yelled—the house into a slim "account of empty benches." His speech consisted mainly of abuse—the President, Mr. Seward, the Conservative Republicans and the Democrats coming in for all sorts of fish-woman epithets, whilst the Philadelphia Convention was denounced in a manner to convince any one that the speaker was nearly frightened out of his wits by its harmonious and patriotic proceedings. He occupied the whole evening, and when he had talked himself out of breath and material, the only impression left upon his audience was, that he much feared Johnsonism would put down Radicalism. McConaughy was not called on to speak—and there were "no refreshments."

☞ The Radical county candidates, last week, devoted nearly all their attention to Democrats—"Copperheads," "Rebels," and "Traitors," as negro orators and newspapers are in the habit of styling them. The manœuvres of these candidates looked as though they had no confidence in their own party strength to elect them, and that unless assisted by a goodly number of Democrats their cases would be hopeless. They begged and begged, almost going down upon their knees, for outside votes.

These now smooth-tongued chaps may as well know, once for all, that Democrats are not blind to the doings of Thad Stevens and the Congress which follows his lead; nor have they so soon forgotten that the Radical candidates, from Congressman down to Coroner, are pledged, by the resolutions of their Convention, to the support of an Amendment to the Constitution through which the Radical leaders are trying to force Negro Suffrage and Negro Equality upon all the States of the Union. These questions Democrats understand; and they understand, too, that every vote cast at the next election for a candidate on the opposition ticket will be an endorsement, to that extent, of the ruinous, the devilish schemes in which Thad Stevens and his followers are engaged. Democrats can't afford, therefore, to cut their own excellent ticket, to endorse the negroism represented by the one on the other side. No, no; Democrats don't like the smell of the thing.

COUCH, CUSTER AND DIX.

This famous trio of Generals, who during the war were lauded to the skies by the abolition press, have fallen into sudden and profound disgrace. They all attended a Union Convention. It only now remains for Boabdil GEARY to denounce them, as he did the Democratic soldiers who met in Convention at Harrisburg, as cowards, skulkers and bounty jumpers.

STATE SENATOR.

We take pleasure in announcing the nomination of our friend B. F. Meyers, editor of the Bedford Gazette, as the "Democratic and National Union" candidate for the State Senate in the Fulton, Bedford and Somerset district. Mr. Meyers has served with distinction in the House of Representatives, and is widely known as a man of ability and of sound constitutional principles.

☞ President Johnson has issued a proclamation abolishing martial law in Texas, the last State in which it existed, and proclaiming that "insurrection is at an end, and that peace, order and tranquility and civil authority now exist in and throughout the whole of the United States." Thus is the President's policy bearing its rich fruits, restoring peace and good will throughout the land, while nothing but evil has come out of the course pursued by Congress.

☞ It is stated that Wm. H. Koontz, the Radical candidate for Congress in this district, voted against the Soldiers' Bounty Bill. The soldiers will have an account to settle with him at the polls.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

A Grand Rally for the Constitution and the Union.

Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe and Hon. F. M. Kimmel, of Chambersburg, being here at Court last week, a call was issued for a Democratic meeting at the Court-house on Wednesday evening, to be addressed by these gentlemen. Though the notice was short, the turn out was large and enthusiastic, far beyond expectation.

About dusk, the Gettysburg Brass Band, seated in the magnificent Chariot belonging to the Democracy, treated different parts of town to some excellent music, and proceeding to the Court-house performed there at intervals during the evening.

At about 8 o'clock, the meeting, then literally packing the Court-room, was organized as follows:

President, Hon. James H. Marshall.

Vice Presidents, Wm. B. Gardner, Esq., Jacob Klunk, Jacob Grove, Major Jacob Sanders, Joseph Gelbach, Capt. W. H. Brogunier, Francis Will, Daniel Biesecker, Isaac F. Brinkerhoff, A. J. Bowers, Frederick Quickel, Elias Hartman, J. Scott Wilson, John McMaster, John Henry Myers, George Bushman, Francis Bream, Isaac Hereter, George Laugh.

Secretaries, Thomas G. Neely, John W. McConnell, Peter Adams, Cornelius Daugherty, Howard Dicks, Alfred Slonaker, Lieut. S. H. Eicholtz, Samuel Lentz.

Hon. J. McDowell Sharpe, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, was first introduced. He spoke for an hour and twenty minutes, and reviewed, with much force and clearness, the destructive course and designs of the Radicals—at the same time stating fairly and fully the patriotic position of President Johnson and those who support him in his restoration policy. The speech was an able, a convincing one, and showed conclusively the necessity for electing conservative candidates to office this fall. It was frequently interrupted by warm applause, which continued to the end.

We may say in this connection that Mr. Sharpe made a very favorable impression whilst here, not only by his ability as a lawyer and a public speaker, but also by his manly bearing and sterling social qualities.

The next speaker was Wm. S. Stenger, Esq., of Chambersburg, who was solicited by telegraph to be with us, as Judge Kimmel was compelled to leave for Chambersburg the day before the meeting. Mr. Stenger is one of the most eloquent and forcible speakers in this part of the Commonwealth, and with so much material at hand, (made by the last Congress and its backers,) he of course delivered a telling speech. Applause followed him throughout; and at the conclusion, the meeting adjourned with three thundering cheers for Johnson, Clymer, and the Democratic ticket.

This meeting augers well. It shows that the people are beginning to manifest a practical concern about the country's welfare—and if that feeling continues to increase, as it no doubt will, negro radicalism will soon sink into the deepest and blackest oblivion.

Communicated.

BERWICK AHEAD!

A large and enthusiastic Democratic meeting was held at Laughman's Schoolhouse, in Berwick township, on Saturday evening, August 18th. Persons attended who seldom go to political meetings, and seemed much interested in the proceedings. Dr. McClure, of New Oxford, and Wm. H. Albright, of York, addressed the meeting in a creditable manner. The officers were:

We hope that the townships will go to work, and get up meetings at each and every farm house. Hold meetings, organize, and make speeches to each other. Much good may thus be done.

BERWICK BOROUGH.

MORE TROUBLE!

There is another big trouble in the Republican party. Henry J. Raymond, the Chairman of the National Republican Committee, appointed by the Republican Convention at Baltimore in 1864, is now OPENLY AND HEARTILY WITH PRESIDENT JOHNSON! Several other members of the Committee take the same side.

The Radicals are determined to throw them out, and will no doubt do so. But can their party afford the splitting off of such important members? Really, their troubles begin to look quite as formidable as did those of the Democracy in 1860, and all efforts to heal them will be just as fruitless. Radicalism is going to pieces.

☞ Another!—The Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee of Illinois declines to serve further in that capacity. He is opposed to Thad Stevens and Negro Radicalism, and goes with the White Man's party for Johnson, the Constitution and the Union!

☞ Koontz, the Radical candidate for Congress in this district, made a speech at Johnstown on the 10th inst., in which he declared that "the time must soon come when all men, without regard to COLOR or RACE, must be EQUAL in EVERY respect." That is, negroes must vote!—negroes must sit on juries!—negroes must marry white girls!—and be equal in "every respect" to white men! People of Adams, what say you to such a bid for your votes?

☞ We publish to-day, to the exclusion of our usual variety, the able and patriotic Address of the National Union Convention at Philadelphia to the people of the United States. It should be read in every household, and its sentiments and doctrines pondered upon by every freeman in the land. Read, and hand to your neighbor!

☞ The reply of the President to the address of the New Hampshire delegation of the Philadelphia Convention indicates changes in official places in the radical States. Ayer's Ague Cure,

FOR THE SPEEDY CURE OF

Intermittent Fever, or Fever and Ague, Remittent Fever, Chill Fever, Dumb Ague, Periodical Headache or Bilious Headache, and Bilious Fevers, in fact for the whole class of diseases originating in biliary derangement, caused by the Malaria of miasmatic countries.

Fever and Ague is not the only consequence of miasmatic poison. A great variety of disorders arise from its irritation, in malarious districts, among which are Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Headache, Blindness, Toothache, Earache, Catarrh, Asthma, Palpitation, Painful Affection of the Spleen, Hysterics, Pain in the Bowels, Colic, Paralysis, and Derangement of the Stomach, all of which, when originating in this cause, put on the intermittent type, or become periodical. This "CURE" expels the poison from the blood, and thus cures them all alike. It is not only the most effectual remedy ever discovered for this class of complaints, but it is the cheapest and moreover is perfectly safe. No harm can arise from its use, and the patient who recovers is left as healthy as if he had never had the disease. Can this be said of any other cure for Chills and Fever? It is true of this, and its importance to those afflicted with the complaint cannot be over estimated. So sure is it to cure the Fever and Ague, that it may be truthfully said to be a certain remedy. One Dollar complains that it is not a good medicine to sell, because one bottle cures a whole neighborhood.

Grand Jury Report.

TO the Honorable the Judges of the Court of Quarter Sessions of the Peace in and for Adams county.

The Grand Jury for the August Term, 1866, having visited the Public buildings, beg leave to submit the following report:

We found the Jail building, with the cells, &c., in good order, neat and clean, and in a condition highly creditable to the officer in charge.

We have the same to say in regard to the Alms-house. The rooms of the inmates, as well as the beds, presented an air of cleanliness and comfort which spoke well for the Steward.

We noticed that the buildings and grounds immediately surrounding them were enclosed with a fine substantial fence, which, whilst it adds considerably to the appearance of the place, is also a great convenience, and assistance to the Steward, by keeping the inmates within bounds. We also noticed a great improvement in the Cooking department, an excellent Range having been put up, which lessens the labor of preparing food, at a saving of fuel. These improvements, whilst naturally attended with considerable expense, we consider as permanent and necessary.

We noticed that one of the rooms in the northeast end of the main building has been injured by the roof becoming defective, and call the attention of the Directors thereto.

Respectfully submitted.

THE BEST IN THE MARKET.

THE VICTOR SORGO MILL.

Over Five thousand of these Mills have been made and sold in the last three years. The best recommendations can be given.

Also—COOK'S EVAPORATOR, for making Sugar and Molasses, said to be the best in use.

CORN CRUSHERS.

Three different sizes for grinding Corn in the ear, or shelled—or any other kind of grain. This is a machine that every farmer should have, as a bushel of ground feed is equal to a bushel and a half unground. The high price of feed of all kinds makes an imperative demand for some kind of machinery by which to save. It is a rapid grinder and durable.

BELLS FOR CHURCHES,

SCHOOLS, FARM HOUSES, FOUNDRIES, &c. Made of the best steel composition. Church Bells insured for one year.

WILLOUGHBY'S GUM SPRING DRILL,

WITH CROWELL'S GUANO ATTACHMENT. This is considered one of the best Drills now in use. It will distribute any kind of grain evenly, and sow from one bushel up to three to the acre. The Guano Attachment has given entire satisfaction wherever used. It is so constructed as not to clog in sowing any kind of Phosphates or Bone Meal. Having sold a number of these machines last season, I can fully recommend them to be what they are represented. Persons wishing to buy should make application early as the supply is small and the demand great.

F. F. SMITH'S CAST STEEL PLOUGHS.

First, It is the only Plough yet produced that will invariably scour in any soil.

Second, It is now an established fact that it will last from three to six times longer than any other steel plough in use.

Third, It draws lighter than any other Plough, cutting the same width and depth of furrow.

The different parts of the Plough are cast in moulds, into the exact shape desired for the mould-boards, shares and land-sides, giving the parts most exposed to wear any desired thickness. The shares can be sharpened by any blacksmith. The steel is perfectly malleable and works kindly. Edge tools have been made out of pieces of the plough by blacksmiths all over the country.

Sewing Machines.

THE GROVER & BAKER—THE BEST IN USE. These Machines have become so well known that little need be said by way of recommendation. They have taken the first premium at all the late State Fairs, and are universally acknowledged to be the BEST in use by all who have tried them. The "Grover & Baker Stitch" and the "Shuttle Stitch" are points that have been attained by no other Machine. They are the only machines that sew and embroider with perfection. These Machines are peculiarly adapted to Family use. They are almost noiseless, sew directly from the spool without rewinding, and are simple in their construction. They are easy to manage, and can be worked by almost any child. Every family should have one. They save labor, they save time, and they save money, and do their work better than it can be done by hand.

The undersigned having been appointed Agent for the above Machines, has established an Agency in Fairfield, Adams county, where he will always have on hand a supply. Persons wishing to buy will please call and examine for themselves.

BELL'S

Concentra'd Flavoring Extracts!

EQUAL to any in the market and superior to many, in larger bottles, and at old prices.

Wholesale agents for Baltimore,

BURROUGH BROS.,
Wholesale Druggists.

LIST.—Lemon, Orange, Vanilla, Rose, Peach, Nutmeg, Celery, Allspice, Cloves, Ginger, Birch, Cinnamon, Apple, Mulberry, Pine Apple, Banana, Mace, Raspberry, Pear, Pepper, Parsley, Strawberry, Bitter Almond, and Savory spices.

The great difficulty heretofore experienced in procuring true Flavoring Extracts, has induced the proprietor to spare no pains or expense in giving to the public an article which will be found true to its name, and which will in no instance be a source of disappointment.

It will be observed that our extract of Lemon and Orange is a prepared extract from the Peel, which any one may be convinced of by merely smelling them.

The price of Vanilla Beans, too, has caused more useless Extract of Vanilla to be manufactured and sold than any other essence being either made from Tonka Beans, or some other fictitious compound. In our Extract we WILL GUARANTEE A PURE ARTICLE! made from the true Bean, without any foreign substance whatever.

Bell's Worm Syrup.

THE MOST INNOCENT, PLEASANT AND EFFICIENT REMEDY IN USE.—A REMEDY PERFECT IN ITSELF.—No Castor Oil to be Taken.—In this Preparation we have included such remedies only as have been tried for years and are known to possess powerful anthelmintic virtues, combined with mild aperients, pleasant aromatics and sugar. Anthelmintics of themselves cannot perform their peculiar functions or have the desired effect, unless the bowels are kept moderately open. To produce this, gentle purgatives are necessary and such only ought to be used that cannot interfere with the anthelmintic employed. The advantages we claim for this Syrup are:

1st. Its power of DESTROYING AND EXPELLING WORMS!

3d. Its pleasant taste and odor are advantages possessed or claimed by very few Vermifuges.

4th. Its harmless influence upon the system, consequently no injurious effects will result from its use should the patient have no Worms, but an apparent disease, arising from some other unknown cause, which is frequently the case.

The constituents of this Syrup and its effects are known to many Physicians, who are now using it in their practice to a large extent.

Price 25 cents a bottle.

The Greatest Liniment in Use.

BELL'S WHITE OIL!—The Blandest, Cleanest, most Penetrating and most Economical Liniment in Use.—A powerful Oleaginus Compound for the Speedy Cure of Rheumatism, Strains, Sprains, Wounds, Numbness of the Limbs, Frosted Feet and Hands, Spavin, Saddle Galls, Poll-Evil, Ring Bone, Bruises, Swellings of all kind, and in fact every disease for which an Embrocation is applicable, either in Man or Beast. Price 25 cents a bottle.—This preparation, which is original with us, will be found to be one of the nicest and at the same time one of the most reliable applications extant.

Having been employed very extensively since its introduction and feeling satisfied of its remedial properties, we recommend it with the utmost confidence, knowing that no one will be disappointed in its use. It is, as its name implies, a white liniment of the consistency of cream, containing nothing offensive, but, on the contrary, will be found more pleasant than otherwise.

Bell's Alterative,

OR CONDITION POWDERS!

FOR HORSES, CATTLE & SWINE.

25 cents a paper, or five papers for $1.

The immense sale of these Powders during the short period they have been before the public, is a sufficient guarantee of their great popularity, and the decided benefits derived from their use.

They are confidently recommended not only as a preventive, but as a complete cure for all diseases incident to the HORSE, COW or HOG, as Loss of Appetite, Coughs, Heaves, Yellow Water, Distemper, Glanders, &c., &c.

By their use the Horse's Appetite is improved, all derangements of the digestive organs corrected, softening the skin, and giving to the coat a sleek and shining appearance, and may be used with perfect safety at all times, as it contains no ingredients which can injure a horse, whether sick or well.

They cleanse the breathing apparatus by ejecting from the air cells coagulated matter, or that formation which so severely clogs them, causing a tightness in breathing, and by their peculiar action on that part, they cause the mucus membrane to resume its natural dimensions, thus equalizing the circulation of the blood and restoring the distended vessels to their natural size.

For fattening cattle they are invaluable, also possessing peculiar properties in increasing the quantity of milk in Cows, thereby giving them an importance and value which should place them within the hands of all interested.

All diseases to which the Hog is subject, as Coughs, Ulcers in the Lungs and Liver, and as a general purifier of the blood we guarantee their efficacy if once fairly tried.

TAKE NOTICE.

FARMERS AND DEALERS IN FERTILIZERS will please take notice that we have adopted the following Trade Mark to protect ourselves, and prevent those who use our RAW BONE SUPER PHOSPHATE from being deceived when purchasing manures.

BAUGH'S

RAW BONE

Super Phosphate of Lime,

Manufactured by BAUGH & SONS,
No. 20 South Delaware Avenue,
PHILADELPHIA.

We have been obliged to give this protection to our customers, in consequence of several parties having unlawfully used our distinctive name, viz: "Raw Bone," in offering their article to the public. This Trade Mark is adopted in addition to the title "Raw Bone," which is our exclusive property, and we caution all manufacturers from using it in future. We would state to the trade and consumers, that they will find it to their interest to see that the "Trade Mark" is upon every bag and barrel they purchase, as none other is genuine.

BAUGH & SONS.

The great popularity of our article has been found sufficient inducement to certain imitators to manufacture and advertise "Raw Bone Phosphates," a name which originated with us, and is our own rightful property. We will state for the information of all, that we are the exclusive manufacturers of this article—the original and sole proprietors of it—having been manufactured by us for a period of twelve years. Also that it is covered by several letters patent, held only by ourselves.

We are now ready to supply it in large quantities—having made recent additions and improvements. Vessels drawing 16 feet of water can load directly from the wharves of the works, which are located at the foot of Morris Street, Delaware River. We call the attention of DEALERS to this
